LUCAS DAVIES ANNOTATES

Lucas has provided annotations to three of his games from recent events - many thanks!

The point being that the knight only retreated because it was attacked on h5; now that White has blocked off his bishop, h5 is free for the knight again. White's last few moves - b4, Re1, Ng5 and f3 - are not coordinated, so Black can afford to waste a little time on moving his knight so many times. 13.c5 Sadly, this is where my memory of the variation ran out, and I was unsure what to do here. 13...h6 13...Nf4

At this point, I didn't really know what to do. All of my plans seemed to be countered by my cramped position due to that pawn on e6. I eventually decided on a6, thinking that maybe I could get a little space on the queenside by eventually pushing b5. 18...a6?± 18...Nc6 I hallucinated on this move, thinking that White could respond with Nd5. I was too focused on trying to get in Qg5 and starting an attack on on the kingside that I temporarily forgot about the pawn, as in all the other variations I could find no decent way to attack it. 19.cxd6 cxd6 20.Be3 Nd4 21.Nd5 Nfxe6 22.Qg4 unclear. 19.Be3 Nc8 19...b5 20.cxb6 cxb6 21.Bb3 Rc8 22.Rc1± 20.Qg4 20.g3 Nh5 21.Qd3± and it's extremely difficult for Black to do anything. 20...h5 21.Qg3 Bf6 22.Bxf4?± 22.Bf2 was the move I was expecting; it seems to be most logical. 22...b5 23.Bb3 A) 23...dxc5 24.Rbd1 Qe8 25.Bxc5 Nd6 (25...Rg8 26.Rd7+ Rg7 27.Nd5 Qxe6 28.Rxc7+-) 26.Nd5+-; B) 23...Re8 24.Rf1 Nxe6 25.Bxe6 Rxe6 26.Nd5± 22...exf4 22...Bh4 23.Bg5 Bxg3 24.Bxd8 Bxe1 25.Rxe1 Rxd8 26.Rf1 was what I looked at in the game, and I wasn't too eager to go into it. I don't see how I'll possibly get rid of the e6 pawn anytime soon, White will invade on the seventh, his knight will go into d5 where it'll be extremely powerful, and my position's still very cramped. 26...Kh6 27.Rf7 c6 28.Rxb7 unclear. 23.Qd3?! 23.Qf3 dxc5 24.Red1 Bd4+ 25.Kh1 Nd6 26.Bb3 with compensation. 23...dxc5 24.e5 24.Nd5 Bd4+ 25.Kh1 b5 26.Bb3 c6 27.bxc5 Be3=+ 24...Qxd3 24...Be7 25.Nd5 cxb4 26.Qe4+= 25.Bxd3 Be7 26.bxc5 26.Nd5 cxb4 27.Nxc7 Ra7=+ 26...Bxc5+ 27.Kh1 Nb6 27...Ra7 28.Nd5 b6 29.Nf6+ Kg7 30.Nd7 Re8 31.Nxc5 bxc5 32.Rb8 Rf8 33.Rf1 with compensation. 28.Ne4 Be7 29.a4 29.Rec1 Rac8 30.Nf2= and it's not totally clear how Black proceeds... ## NEW EDITION OF BCBASE

The latest version of BCBASE is now available, at www.chessbc.ca.
The database contains games, currently about 14,160, either played in British Columbia or by B.C. players elsewhere in the world. These have been assembled from various sources: other databases, published sources (magazines, newspaper columns, books), and scoresheets, both recent (the latest Keres tournaments and BC Championships) and historical (with special thanks to Max Enke/the BC Archives, Miervaldis Jursevskis, Jonathan Berry, Paul Brown, Philip Cavanagh, the family of Lionel Joyner, Brian Potter, Vas Sladek, Mike Stanford, Robert Brewster, David Hladek, Fred Schulz, and Lynn Stringer).

Generally I have only included games by players while they were resident in B.C.; thus the games for Dave Ross and Gordon Taylor only cover the period when they actually lived here. I have made exceptions for some stronger players when the additional games give a fuller perspective on their playing careers. For example, included are games by Elod Macskasy and Miervaldis Jursevskis before they came to Canada, Lionel Joyner before he came to B.C., and Peter Biyiasas after he left the country.

The database is split into two sections (largely to avoid the 8,000 game limit on CBLight), with the dividing line being the 1990 B.C. Championship. The earlier section, BCHIST, is intended as a historical anthology, including as it does the playing careers of Macskasy, Suttles and Biyiasas; the second section, BCMODERN, covers from 1990 to the present.

This collection is not definitive, but is very much a work in progress - there are still many published games that I have not yet had the time to enter. Supplements of new games will be provided on a regular basis (in conjunction with the games in the Bulletin), and the database itself is updated periodically. If readers notice errors, or would like to contribute their own games to the collection, please contact me, Stephen Wright.

Colin Aykroyd wrote:

"Yielding only two draws in eleven games, grandmaster Abe Yanofsky of Winnipeg once again demonstrated that he has no peer in Canadian Chess. At no time was Yanofsky's superiority really threatened during the twelve day tournament at International House, U.B.C. in Vancouver and he had little difficulty in dispatching his two main rivals, Lionel Joyner of Edmonton and Duncan Suttles of Vancouver, in their individual games. It seems unlikely at present that either Yanofsky or Joyner will be able to represent Canada in the Interzonal and Suttles' participation may depend on his showing in the World Junior Championship in Barcelona in August.

"After a shaky start which included his only loss (to Yanofsky) and a draw with Mark Schulman, Joyner settled down to produce some really fine chess which included consecutive victories over Macskasy, Vaitonis, and Suttles. His elegant but solid style contrasted with Suttles' "power chess" which made a shambles of the lower half of the scoretable in the early rounds. Many of these short encounters ended abruptly in less than two hours play as Suttles' favourite Robatsch Defence cut a devastating swathe. (This was by far the most popular in the tournament with 19 of 66 games opening with 1...g6!) Superficial play in a sharp position enabled Joyner to mount a successful defence against Suttles' gambit attack while Yanofsky's counterattack from a Caro-Kann Defence soon became irresistible after an early inaccuracy by Suttles.

"Lapses against Ron Leonard of Edmonton and Paul Vaitonis prevented Dr. Macskasy from reaching a higher place. Positional skill and technique are still in evidence in his games but a lack of sharpness, and uncertainty in time-pressure situations proved costly. Mark Schulman's tie with Macskasy after his fifteenth place finish in the '63 Closed was one of the features of the tournament which augur well for the future of Canadian chess. He displayed a solid, fighting style which was best exemplified in his 82-move draw with Joyner from an inferior position.

"Of the other players, Ray Kerr of Powell River showed a tough style but was inclined to concede the draw in situations where a little patience might have produced a full point. Former champion Paul Vaitonis played below his former form and only a crafty resourcefulness, especially during his frequent time-scrambles, enabled him to finish as high as he did.

"Potter played quite enterprisingly, though handicapped by working during the tournament. Young Ron Leonard also played well, but threw away some well played games, a defect which experience will probably correct.

"Litwinczuk (playing against his doctor's advice), Kaltenecker, and Veszely were all making their first appearance in a Canadian Closed. In general they were not able to keep pace with the big guns, although Veszely did extend Yanofsky to 72 moves.

"Although not as strong as some previous Championships, the quality of play in this year's event was generally high, and Canada's prospects in the 1966 Chess Olympics in Cuba seem most promising. Perhaps grandmaster Yanofsky can soften up some of the opposition when he attends the Capablanca Memorial Tournament in Havana in September!" [Canadian Chess Chat, July 1965]
